

Worth Fighting For

Paradise Lost

It's worth fighting for
Failing now I wonder, turn the other way Don't let me dream at all, don't let me sleep
Don't let me dream at all, there's something that's a part of me
Must never be revealed, a rushing that just starts in me
It's never to be seen It's worth fighting for Fading down to under, turn the other way Afraid and down I wander, damned & disobeyed
There's something that just starts in me,
It never can redeem
There's something that's regarding me, you never would believe Down I wander
Don't let me dream at all, don't let me sleep
Don't let me dream at all Failing now I wonder, turn the other way
It's worth fighting for
It's worth fighting for
Failing now I wonder, turn the other way
