

These Worries

Kid Cudi

[Kid Cudi]

Yeah the crazy the wizard so much whiskey all in my liver I really like the punch it delivers makes me warm while I high five sinners all alone trying to hide from the shadows ainâ€™t no use, it seems everywhere they follow they know where I be at, in my mind tryna get me

[Mary J Blige]

These worries are heavy, they rest on my shoulders my body wonâ€™t let me fall victim no more
these worries are heavy, they rest on my shoulders
my body wonâ€™t let me fall victim no more

[Kid Cudi]

Life is like that, beat me up and Iâ€™ll fight right back poof poof be gone, I see the devil linger on, yeaaa stuck in my hell, writing my mom and I ainâ€™t doing so well, lord let me in, I feel like heâ€™s my only friend

Yeah, the rage of the menace hate me now then hate me when Iâ€™m winning work so hard to not go insane, itâ€™s a full time job to not lose my faith okay Iâ€™ve been here before, alone for the upteenth time or more Iâ€™m tired of mufuckas sayin that they worry about me when in fact they probably never gave fuck about me

[Mary J Blige]

These worries are heavy, they rest on my shoulders
my body wonâ€™t let me fall victim no more
these worries are heavy, they rest on my shoulders
my body wonâ€™t let me fall victim no more

[Kid Cudi]

Yeah life is like that, beat me up and Iâ€™m fighting right back poof poof be gone, I see the devil linger on, yeah I wanna win, as long as I can do the work within, lord help me in, I feel like its my only friend.

[Mary J Blige]

These worries are heavy, they rest on my shoulders
my body won't let me fall victim no more
these worries are heavy, they rest on my shoulders
my body won't let me fall victim no more

Yeah, the rage of the menace..
