

Corner of My Eye

Pomegranate

String me along
The delicate play of this silken thread
Implied and overthrown
It was just too easy to forget

Call off the search for words
Donâ€™t try to describe it
Donâ€™t try to describe it
Out of the corner of my eye
Out of the corner of my eye

Loose leaf will fall
Blown in on a blizzard of contempt
Blissfully unaware
We slept much later than we meant

Call off the search for words
Donâ€™t try to describe it
Conflicted and divided
Out of the corner of my eye
Out of the corner of my eye
Out of the corner of my eye
Out of the corner of my eye

This narrow ribbon of a road
The racing heart as it comes close
Uncertain of what we see
It meant something different to me

Call off the search for words
Donâ€™t try to describe it
Donâ€™t try to describe it
Out of the corner of my eye
Out of the corner of my eye
Out of the corner of my eye
Out of the corner of my eye
