Everything

A Cursive Memory

This time I realize
You're looking this way with your real eyesYou're the beat that can't stop
The peak of my plot
The deep in my thought
The time on my watch
You're the air that I breathe
The world that I see, you are, you areI can never find a way
Or the right things to say
And guess I just didn't know howYou see the longer that we wait
The more time things can take
I guess I'll have to spell it outYou're my E V E R Y T H I N G
Everywhere, every time, everything
You're my E V E R Y T H I N G
Everywhere, every time, everythingYou're the beat that can't stop
The peak of my plot
The deep in my thought
The time on my watch
You're the air that I breathe
The world that I see, you are, you areI can never find a way
Or the right things to say
And guess I just didn't know howYou see the longer that we wait
The more time things can take
I guess I'll have to spell it outYou're my E V E R Y T H I N G
Everywhere, every time, everything
You're my E V E R Y T H I N G
Everywhere, every time, everything(Girl, I can't stop)
Girl, I can't stop think 'bout anyone else but you
(Girl, I can't stop)
Girl, I can't stop think 'bout anyone else but you
(Girl, I can't stop)Girl, I can't stop think 'bout anyone else but you
(Girl)
I'm so gone, so fineYou're my E V E R Y T H I N G
Everywhere, every time, everything
You're my E V E R Y T H I N G
Everywhere, every time, everythingGirl, I can't stop think 'bout anyone else but you
