In Your Bedroom

Exit 159

wait a minute now
didn't I say
I want you closer
you would never be I'm so excited
you know I just can't sleep
in your bedroom
because I want to be with you but you don't want me to God I'd walk on fire for you
wait a minute now
let's go walking
and hold our breath
to the very bottom where I can see you
and we can just be real yeah, I believe you
