The Bed's Too Big Without You

The Police

Bed's too big without you Cold wind blows right through that open door I can't sleep with your memory Dreaming dreams of what used to beWhen she left I was cold inside That look on my face was just pride No regrets, no love, no tears Living on my own was the least of my fearsBed's too big without you The bed's too big without you The bed's too big Without youSince that day when you'd gone Just had to carry on I get through the day but late at night Love to my pillow but it didn't feel rightEvery day, just the same Old rules for the same old game All I gained was heartache All I made was one mistakeNow the bed's too big without you The bed's too big without you The bed's too big Without youBed's too big without you The bed's too big without you The bed's too big Without you
