Serial Joe

Lyrics: dan stadnicki & ryan dennis

Music: serial joe

© 1999 You back track, everybody knows just that You're paranoid about the things that just don't cut it flat
Quit your pullin' all the tricks from you sleeve
But only God knows what the hell you mean
Stare out my window at the broken streets below
Feel the angst within me - soon I'm gonna blow
Got a rage built up inside of me I'll never show
Love to stay and chat but I gotta go You second guess your life
Tryin' to make it all fit
Gotta stop your beggin'
And be more sure of it
Inquisitive minds wanna interfere
Try n' figure out what the hell I'm doin' here
Turn around the corner it's a brand new day
Strange the way today seems just like yesterday
Try your best to free yourself from anxiety
Livin' for today, you gotta make it your priority Complicated,
Mind all faded
And a part of you,
Lost and jaded
Complicated,
Mind all faded
And a part of you,
Lost and jaded
Complicated,
Mind all faded
And a part of you,
Lost and jaded
Complicated,
Mind all faded
And a part of you,
Lost and jaded
