

Representing the Poor Man

One Minute Silence

You come as you are, I know you
Into the fray without the rules
The violent calm becomes the storm
The open minds have all been warnedRepresenting
The dawn will write another day
The sun will rise again enraged
The clocks will tick and talk for you
The moon will serenade your blueI'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to youRepresenting
RepresentingRepresenting the poor man while
He stands up for the Promised Land
Are we up? Are we up?
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
Representing the poor man while
He strikes back at his brother's hand
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
Are we fucked? Are we fucked?
Representing the poor man while
He stands up for the Promised Land
Are we up? Are we up?
Representing they'll have to kill me
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
I'll be damned they'll have to kill meThe day is ours and ours alone
The dying world outside our door
The fickle face of all I know
The truth washed up along the shore
I'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to youI'm gonna be right there next to you
I'm gonna be right there next to youRepresentingRepresenting
Representing the poor man while
He stands up for the Promised Land
Are we up? Are we up?
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
Representing the poor man while
He strikes back at his brother's hand
Are we fucked? Are we fucked?
I'll be damned, I'll be damned

Representing the poor man while
He stands up for the Promised Land
Are we up? Are we up?
I'll be damned, I'll be damned
Representing they'll have to kill me
I'll be damned they'll have to kill me
The King wears no clothesThe King wears no clothes
The King wears no clothes
The King wears no clothes
The King wears no clothes
The King wears no clothes
The King wears no clothes
Representing the poor manRepresenting the poor man
I'll be damned
Representing the poor man
I'll be damned
I'll be damned
Representing
We'll be damned
We'll be damned
We'll be damned
We'll be damned
We'll be damned
We'll be damned
