

Emerald Tuesday

Cibo Matto

I play the song
Every Tuesday
I drink slow
With the song these daysAny sign to know
All lights are slow
The sun goes low
The sun goes lowAny sign to know
All lights are slow
The sun goes low
The sun goes lowI sat alone
Last Tuesday
A hole in my bone
Makes me swayBecause of a shadow of you
And the scent of you
Because of a shadow of you
And the scent of youAny sign to know
Any place to go
The moonlight glows
The moonlight glowsAny sign to know
Any place to go
The moonlight glows
The moonlight glowsDon't make me laugh
Don't make me sad
Don't make me high
Don't make me mad
Don't make me laugh
Don't shake my heart like a drink
Oh no, copy paste again, I'm always on the run forever
I play the song
Every TuesdayExtra mint, please
To make my heart breeze
Extra hint, please
To make our time freezeI wonder what's in this drink
The sky is so pink to fulfill a link
To find the color of two universes
I stand between blue and gray
