

Without You

The Waifs

Got some books but I got no brain, I said I try my hardest but in vain Got my house, but I lost my home, I said without you I'm all alone Got my bed, but I can't sleep, because your love I just can't keep Got a license, but I got no car, I said without you I won't get far I got a phone but you don't call just what to say,
forget it all
I got burned and lost my pride, I said without you right by my side
Got a job, but I make no pay I said it doesn't matter anyway Got no girl to spend it on I said without you my love goes on. You took my love and then you threw it through the door But for some reason I keep coming back for more You said you'd always love me, love me, love me.
Those words you said they keep ringing in my head Revolving round and a bringing me down I can't replace the memory of you love, I love you. Got some books but I got no brain, I said I try my hardest but in vain Got my house, but I lost my home, I said without you I'm all alone Got my bed, but I can't sleep, because your love I just can't keep Got a license, but I got no car, I said without you I won't get far I got a phone but you don't call just what to say,
forget it all
I got burned and lost my pride, I said without you right by my side
Got a job, but I make no pay I said it doesn't matter anyway Got no girl to spend it on I said without you my love goes on. (chorus: Without you, without you, my love goes on, without you, without you, without you, my love goes on)
