Do You Remember

Ane Brun

Do you remember the late morning
When we went back to bed,
When we found the first position
And every muscle restedI do remember that I already
Knew it was the last time,
The last time for first positions
The last time you'll be mineAaaaoo aoo aoo ao
Aaaaoo aoo aoo aoDo you remember the scars I showed you
The stories I told you
How I always said forever
When you aksed me to stay trueDo you remember when we forgot
How to smile at each other
To believe that the other
Want only whats good for youAaaaoo aoo aoo ao
Aaaaoo aoo aoo aoAaaaoo aoo aoo ao
Aaaaoo aoo aoo aoDo you remember the late morning
When we went back to bed,
When we found the first position
And every muscle restedI do remember that I already
Knew it was the last time,
The last time for first positions
The last time you'll be mine
