

Vegas

Two Tons of Steel

She said she felt like driving, and took the keys from my hand.
By the way that she was smiling,
I knew she had a plan.
She put on some cool sunglasses,
and fixed that pretty dress.
She said now I feel like living, aw and licked her ruby red lips singin bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye

she looked at me with the cutest grin and asked me if I'd ever been to Vegas.
I said No I'm not the gamblin type, but I've seen that movie 16 times with Elvis She said life's too short to live like this,
and with a little kiss,
we sang bye bye bye bye bye bye bye

Life's for living, for giving, not knowing what's in store
Taking chances, late night dances, making love on the living room floor.
singing bye bye bye bye bye bye bye,
bye bye bye bye bye bye bye

As we drove on through the night, we held each other tight,
and I was thinkin.
Maybe we could strike it rich,
and then we'd never come back from Vegas.

I like the bright light of that city,
oh they sparkle in her eyes.
She never looked so pretty,
I was a lucky guy.
singing bye bye bye bye bye bye bye,

Life's for living, for giving, not knowing what's in store
Taking chances, late night dances, making love on the living room floor.
we sing bye bye bye bye bye bye bye,
bye bye bye bye bye bye bye
