Witchdance

Greenrose Faire

So you think you have seen everything,
a million things that don't mean anything.
But you've never seen htese ladies here before.
Beware now, you'll want to hear some more.

We're never gonna behave, we're never gonna fit.
We'll start a new religion, with the powers we possess.
We're laughing as we're singing, dancing through the night
and when the morning comes we'll kiss the day goodnight.

Like a magic, we worship the moon and stars.
With a crystal ball we can look very far.
Darkened woods are our dearest friend.
We'll love it, treasure it till the end.

We're never gonna behave, we're never gonna fit.
We'll start a new religion, with the powers we possess.
We're laughing as we're singing, dancing through the night
and when the morning comes we'll kiss the day goodnight.

There was a time when people knew who we were.
Those days are gone, remaining in out memories.
But if you see us we will make you scream and run,
and we will start a witch dance.

We're never gonna behave, we're never gonna fit.
We'll start a new religion, with the powers we possess.
We're laughing as we're singing, dancing through the night
and when the morning comes we'll kiss the day goodnight.

(Hey, hey, hey!)
There's nothing you can do.
(Hey, hey, hey!)
We put a spell on you.
(Hey, hey, hey!)
There's nothing you can do,
beware now, we put a spell on you.

(Hey, hey, hey!)
There's nothing you can do.

(Hey, hey, hey!)
We put a spell on you.
(Hey, hey, hey!)
There's nothing you can do,
beware now, we put a spell on you.

We're never gonna behave, we're never gonna fit.
We'll start a new religion, with the powers we possess.
We're laughing as we're singing, dancing through the night
and when the morning comes we'll kiss the day goodnight.
