Something to Hide

Copperview

Take me on a ride to the other side
To the place where I've been able to hide
Reflection of my face and the cold winter taste
Makes me feel like I'm fucking alive
Take me down easy
I'm feeling kind of sleazy
I've come now to the end of the line
One last chance and I'm not gonna make it
Tell me how I'm living a lieIf it's me to fall and end up on my own
Too many reasons why I could end up all alone
If it's me to fall and end up on my own
It's all my fault
And this I know
I've got something to hideTake me on a ride to the other side
To the place where I've been able to hide
Reflection of someone come completely undone
Makes me feel like I will never survive
Take me down easy I'm feeling kind of sleazy
I've come now to the end of the line
Just one last chance and I'm not gonna make it
Tell me how I'm living a lieIf it's me to fall and end up on my own
Too many reasons why I could end up all alone
If it's me to fall and end up on my own
It's all my fault
And this I know
I've got something to hide (x3)
