

Lilith (feat. Apashe & Madi)

Apashe

[Verse 1]

I'll still enchant you, capture your soul
A slave to my love, bring me your all
Irresistible, my sorrow and my soul
Crumbles you down and haunts you to ground
(Put us in the war)
And haunts you to ground
Bring me your all[Refrain]
Put us in the war
Put us in the war
Put us in the war

[Verse 2]

Let chaos arise, a sword through your heart
My lips of peace whisper and cage your chivalry
Put us in the war, a massacre of love
It won't be won, with both sides in shards[Verse 3]

So have a dance with demons

I'll give you a kiss

Turn you in a believer

I know that I'll win

I know that love wins

I know that nothing love wins[Verse 4]

I'll still enchant you, and all you endure

I'm a home of your heart, feeding you a lure

Irresistible, my sorrow and my soul

Crumbles you down

[Refrain]

Put us in the war

Bring me your all

Bring me the war
