

Best Won't Do

Art of Dying

I've been down to the bottom
It's a long way to the top
So lonely at the middle
And painful when you drop
Don't need no motivation
Don't want your sympathy
All you are is critical of what I'm meant to be
Meant to be
Yeah
Why does everything have to be so difficult
You do your best just to wind up typical
It don't matter what you choose
You lose, you lose, you lose!
Your best won't do
Your best won't do
The words that you have spoken mean nothing to me now
The promises you've broken won't drag me to the ground
It happened for a reason
Life's too short to waste
Losers can't be winners if all they do is wait
I can't wait, yeah
Why does everything have to be so difficult
You do your best just to wind up typical
It don't matter what you choose
You lose, you lose, you lose!
Your best won't do
Time of the horizon
Time of the horizon
Dark has been born
A day that will never come
Why does everything have to be so difficult
You do your best just to wind up typical
It don't matter what you choose
You lose, you lose, you lose!
Your best won't do
Your best won't do
Your best won't do
You lose, you lose, you lose!
Your best won't do
Your best won't do
