Sojourn Girl

Sling Seed

Visions of the night will rob your soul
Choking all the love out of a song
Blinded by the violence in their eyes
Take me to the place inside your mind

Be my sojourn girl
We'll ride it through this wicked world
Be my sojourn girl
We'll ride it through this wicked world

Careful when they say the snow is warm
They'll cut you down and crown your head with thorns
Succubus the demon lover sings
You're trading in your old chain for some wings

Be my sojourn girl
We'll ride it through this wicked world
Be my sojourn girl
