

You Just Can't Quit

Rick Nelson

When the whole world puts you down and makes you feel like a clown
That's not it you just can't quit
Don't feel sorry for things cause can't you see I'm still me
And I just can't quit
I can hear the things they're saying you don't know the price I'm paying now hmm
They all laugh and point at me but I'm gonna laugh at last you see somehow
It's funny how your friends disappear when troubles they find but I don't mind
I just can't quit I can hear the things they're saying
I just can't quit
