Get Up and Go

The Rutles

Working up a fever in a one-horse town was a Jockey by the name of Joe He didn't have a lot of what you might call "luck"
But he had a lot of "get-up-and-go" why Get up and go, Get up and go, Get up and go back home Get up and go, Get up and go, Get up and go back home Tall in the saddle in a one-horse town
Joey knew someday he'd hit the road
He traded with a dealer for a pick up truck and was lookin' for a medium-load
repeat why Cruisin' down the highway, doin' sixty-five,
In the middle of the double-white line.
Foot down on the gas and his head in the clouds.
He didn't see the 'one way' sign.
repeat why
repeat why 2 times
