Uglier Than You

Clem Snide

And she wore a flower in her hair
Wrinkled like her ear
Listen to me laugh about
The worldAnd she said the trees know everything
With leaves that slowly and quietly
She speaks I cannot hearAnd people look the same to me
And they're much uglier than you, youAnd she lit a candle in her room
I said I never floss and all she waits
To do is hang aroundAnd she tends her garden in a dress
It's white and I don't know
If pulling all the weeds is gonna help
And people look the same to me
And they're much uglier than you, you
You, you, you, you, you, you, you
