

Love and Danger

Boy George

Oh darling, the darkness is on our side
I wonder if you will surrender
She's waiting for you, but so am I
Ambiguous, so beautiful, that's life Who made the rules, coz, the rules ain't fun
If you're loving us two, who's the lonely one?
Got addicted to love and danger Love and danger
Love and danger
Love and danger
Love and danger
I know I've lost my soul
Oh darling, the future is made of lies
Oh I never want to see you go but you are always gone by sunrise
She's waiting for you but I dry my eyes
Ambiguous, so beautiful, that's life Who made the rules, coz, the rules ain't fun
If you're loving us two, who's the lonely one?
Got addicted to love and danger Love and danger
Love and danger
Love and danger
Love and danger I know I've lost my soul (forgiving you, forgiving you)
Every time you lie oh I'm on your side forgiving you, forgiving you
That's what lovers do
Love and danger
Love and danger
Love and danger
Love and danger
