

Various Methods of Escape

Nine Inch Nails

Hallucinate in high fidelity
The pieces of a plan
Construction of the highest quality
The blood from my own hand

A line of lyric looping in my head
The body listening
It doesn't really matter anymore
Yes it doesn't mean a thing

I've gotta let go
I've gotta get straight
Why do you have to make it so hard?
Let me get away

An effigy so wondrous to behold
Statements so profound
A place to bury everything I did
And burn it to the ground

A fire illuminates the final scene
The past repeats itself
I cannot tell the difference anymore
I cannot trust myself

I've gotta let go
I've gotta get straight
Why do you have to make it so hard?
Let me get away

I've gotta let go
I've gotta get straight
Why do you have to make it so hard?
Let me get away

I think I could lose myself in here
I think I could lose myself in here
I think I could lose myself in here
I think I could lose myself in here

Iâ€™ve gotta let go
Iâ€™ve gotta get straight
Whyâ€™d you have to make this so hard?
Let me get away

Got to let him go
Found another way
Whyâ€™d you have to make this so hard?
Let me get away
