Live It. Love It. Lust It

Emarosa

No matter, how hard, you fucking try, these shots, they're never gonna take me,
No matter, how hard, you fucking try, these shots, they're never gonna take me,

Even in the hardest of times, we find love, we find love,
I thought, when I fell, people would understand me, people would understand me,

It was in your eyes, I will be just fine, lost all that's my life, I will be just fine,
There's no weakness in forgiveness

If I tried to take,
Everything in this world,
That reminded me of you,
It would be so empty,
That fucking God himself,
Would have to start again,
And his eyes would roll back in his head,
And he'd pretend it never happened

No point in pretending, you don't feel the same pain,
You don't see the same things, that made, ripped you inside
Keep that pace girl,
This is the only way, your mind's gonna stay blind,
Go ahead and keep your pace, let your little heart race,

It was in your eyes, I will be just fine, Lost all that my life, I will be just fine,
It was in your eyes, I will be just fine, Lost all that my life, I will be just fine,
There's no weakness in forgiveness
