Lighters (The One)

Gabz

Put your lighters in the air
If you've ever felt scared
'Cause you've lost the one
Who was the onePut your lighters in the sky
If you're sleeping alone tonight
'Cause you've lost the one
Who was the oneYou are my best friend and boyfriend
All at the same time
It's funny to think I've known you
All my life, I can't even remember
A time when we weren't together
Thinking back to the time where
You promised it would last forever
We only just learned what love was
But I tried to impress you with my Lips and mouth, now I'm sitting
Here wondering where is the love
Only thing I have is a voice and a
Lighter, so,Put your lighters in the air
If you've ever felt scared
'Cause you've lost the one
Who was the onePut your lighters in the sky
If you're sleeping alone tonight
'cause you've lost the one
Who was the oneThe one, The one, The oneYou was so young you
Couldn't even say it
And these were at the park
At the swings, where we
Were just playing, but I
Remember everything that
You wrote, we go write it
On a post it note, I write
Yes, then I gave it back
Hr said I could keep it
And I still got that, now
I'm sitting here wondering
Where did the love go
Only thing I have is a
Voice and a lighter, so,Put your lighters in the air

If you've ever felt scared
'Cause you've lost the one
Who was the onePut your lighters in the sky
If you're sleeping alone tonight
'Cause you've lost the one
Who was the oneThe one, The one, The one
