

Inasmuch

Mike Hirst

The world could pass me by
And my dreams all fade and I,
I watch the people I love
Turn their backs on me,
Could I turn the cheek?

I've got to hold Your hand,
I fall and stand to fall again,
So I need You,
And then I see You and Your plans,
To make me a man.

(Chorus)
So it's okay
If You call me on the seas,
Excuse my feeble knees,
I just need to believe
That You are perfect,
And this is all perfectly planned
It's in Your hands.

And it's okay,
The clouds will fade away
And the sun will shine again,
But still I praise Your name
You are faithful,
When I am faithless
Inasmuch
I will smile because I'm loved.

You turn my life around
You melt my idols into crowns
That I cast down
As I fall down at Your feet.
Oh, I believe.

When You seem so far,
I look beneath me,
And there You are
As You carry me

And hold me in Your arms,
Where I belong.

(Chorus)

So it's okay
If You call me on the seas,
Excuse my feeble knees,
I just need to believe
That You are perfect,
And this is all perfectly planned
It's in Your hands.

And it's okay,
The clouds will fade away
And the sun will shine again,
But still I praise Your name
You are faithful,
When I am faithless
Inasmuch
I will smile because I'm loved.

And the storms are all around,
The crashing waves,
I'll sink and drown
As You look me in the eyes and ask me,
"Why are you of little faith?"
And then I'm finding
I need you and I'm needing to believe You,
Still You save my life.

(Chorus)

So it's okay
If You call me on the seas,
Excuse my feeble knees,
I just need to believe
That You are perfect,
And this is all perfectly planned
It's in Your hands.

And it's okay,
The clouds will fade away
And the sun will shine again,
But still I praise Your name
You are faithful,
When I am faithless

Inasmuch
I will smile because I'm loved.
I'll smile 'cause I'm loved
I'll smile 'cause I'm loved forever,
Greatest Treasure
Oh, I smile because I'm loved.
