Damn

112

Damn why'd you have to look so good?
Damn why'd you have to be so sexy? Oh oh
Damn why'd you have to dress so fly?
Why'd you have to catch my eye?
Oh oh won't somebody tell me why?Damn why'd I have to fall in love
At a time when I knew I wasn't ready? Oh oh
Why did I fall for you?
Why did I love her too?
What was I suppose to do? Oh ohDamn now I never meant to break your heart, no
Damn and I never really meant to leave you alone babe
Damn but I had to except that we were not happy
It just wasn't workingDamn why'd you have to be so cool, oh
At a time when me and ol' girl was having our problems? Oh oh
Damn, why'd she have to be so cruel?
Why did I turn to you? Did I make the wrong move?Damn, why did you give me space?
At a time when that girl was trying to holla oh
Damn why'd you have to take her place?
Why'd did you have to stay? Why was it too late for us?Damn now I never meant to break your heart, no
Damn and I never really meant to leave you alone babe
Damn but I had to except that we were not happy
It just wasn't workingDamn now I never meant to break your heart, no
Damn and I never really meant to leave you alone babe
Damn but I had to except that we were not happy
It just wasn't workingBaby I should let it go or should I let her know
I got another on the side and she does everything right
I don't know what else to do, I'm not happy with youAs she steps in and everything I need she's giving me
I can't believe just how good she is to me
And I don't ever want her ever to stop 'cause I love her so much
All that I can say is damnDamn now I never meant to break your heart, no
Damn and I never really meant to leave you alone babe
Damn but I had to except that we were not happy
It just wasn't workingDamn now I never meant to break your heart, no
Damn and I never really meant to leave you alone babe
Damn but I had to except that we were not happy
It just wasn't working
