Without You

Lucie Silvas

Without you, I have room to breathe
And if I'm weak then you can't see my insecurities
Without you, I can do what I choose
'Cause when you got no one to love, you got nothing to loseWill there come a time when my head
Finds it easier to not think about this?
And I would do anything to stop
The weight of my heart getting heavier
My only conclusion isThat nothing compares to you
No matter where I look, no matter what I do
'Cause that Garden of Eden, you took me to
Is now over grown and the love I've known
Is gone without you, is gone without youWithout you, I can kid myself
My idea of perfect love is not a fairytale
Without you, I don't need to explain
There's no one to answer to when I got no one to blameI can do my thing 'cause who cares
What tomorrow brings when you got nothing to miss
And every time I hide in the arms of another
I realize it still comes to thisThat nothing compares to you
No matter where I look, no matter what I do
'Cause that Garden of Eden you took me to
Is now over grown and the love I've known
Is gone without youWhat is the flower that never blooms?
What's the night sky without its moon?
If I'm the music, you're the tune
Don't hear a sound here without you'Cause nothing compares to you
No matter where I look, no matter what I do
'Cause that Garden of Eden you took me to
Is now over grown'Cause nothing compares to you
No matter where I look, no matter what I do
'Cause that Garden of Eden you took me to
Is now over grown and the love I've known
Is gone without you, it's gone without you
Is gone without you, the love I've known is gone without you
