

Enemy of My Enemy

Sparzanza

Two walls instigated

For you I'm full of hatred

I love the panic in your eyesEverything you taught me was a lie

The world is damned, now everything must dieI feel nothing, I'm born of hate

And you're all bound to see my supremacy

When I push back the strain I feel no pain, feel no empathy

The enemy of my enemy is my enemy

My wrath's resurrected

My vengeance is perfected

You can't believe what's in my mindSqueal like a pig, no one hears your cries

You are the scum, all that I despiseI feel nothing, I'm born of hate

And you're all bound to see my supremacy

When I push back the strain I feel no pain, feel no empathy

The enemy of my enemy is my enemy

I feel nothing, I'm born of hate

And you're all bound to see my supremacy

And when nothing remains, I end this game with no sympathy

The enemy of my enemy is my enemy
