

The City We Live In

Jonezetta

I'm not taking one step closer
Unless you make me move
And I'm not asking if you're happy
'Cause I already know Love is all ready singing back
Whether you're ready
I will take you somewhere Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know
That I'm always waiting for you here I came in through the door was open
I can't believe I'm here
Could take a picture of you sleeping
Or just take you with me Love is all ready singing back
Whether you're ready
I will take you somewhere Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know
That I'm always waiting for you here
Waiting for you here
Waiting for you here
Waiting for you here Love is all ready
Whether you're ready Love is all ready singing back
Whether you're ready
I will take you somewhere Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know
That I'm always waiting for you here
Waiting for you here
Waiting for you here
Waiting for you here Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know
That I'm always waiting for you here No one has to know
No one has to know
No one has to know
No one has to know
No one has to know
