Promoter (Of Earthbound Causes)

Clutch

Warmed up my motor, swindled the promoter

Took the lunatic for a ride

And a little voice said inside my head

Said, "Rosemary baby, I got the thyme" Suffering madness and the Pharaoh's plague

I, Akhenaten tell you some other day

No thank you, that's enough for me

A little bit of Ritalin goes a long wayReady to rock if you want to roll

Please step away from the vehicle

Ragnarock and revolutionize

Gimme just a minute while I clarifyCooled down my temper, I tried to remember

What it was I wasn't to lose

And I probably could, were it not for

The beer and the broads and the broads and the boozeHooked on stupid and the whole shebang

I never have ever felt the same

No thank you, that's enough for me

That's prozacly not what I needReady to rock if you want to roll

Please step away from the vehicle

Ragnarock and revolutionize

Gimme just a minute while I clarifyReady to rock if you want to roll

Please step away from the vehicle

Ragnarock and revolutionize

Gimme just a minute while I clarifyReady to rock if you want to roll

Please step away from the vehicle

Ragnarock and revolutionize

Gimme just a minute while I clarify
