Sacrifice

Inside Out

I gave, I gave, you indulged yourself and robbed from my good will.
If not you who can I trust? Who can I trust to be fulfilled?
Sacrifice.
I've done more than my share.
I kept you from drowning when I couldn't swim.
Now I'm sinking and you're not there.You're not there.
You're not there.
You're not there.So now I choke on every word that I said to your pretty face.
Like when I said that no one better, no one better could take your place.
Betrayal - lies: Lies thick in the air.
And should the bottom fall out on your life you'll turn around and I'm not there.I'm not there.
I'm not there.
I'm not there.
