

The Mystery We Are

All About Eve

Within the hall of mirrors
Within a crowd of you
Where you're gathering in cloud form
Refusing what is trueUncertainties reflecting
All along the way
While I still meet with confusion
In what to do or sayOh, please don't reveal who we are
Can we wonder at the mystery so far?
Maybe someday we will find the thing we are
Be it under a stone or behind the door
Languishing on an ocean floorWithin the heart hanging on a star
The mystery we areRussian dolls concealing
A dream within a dream
Where the depths beneath the surface
Are rarely ever seenOh, please don't reveal who we are
Can we wonder at the mystery so far?
Maybe someday we will find the thing we are
Be it under a stone or behind the door
Languishing on an ocean floorWithin the heart hanging on a star
The mystery we areIf you know the answer
And if you find the key
To the opening of secrets
And you offer it to me, and I sayPlease, don't reveal who we are
Can we wonder at the mystery so far?
Maybe someday we will find the thing we are
Be it under a stone or behind the door
Languishing on an ocean floorSlumbering in a dreamless sleep
Melting into the velvet deep
Within the heart hanging on a star
The mystery we are
