Iamthemorning

Here i lay on the broken glass it hurts like shapes of past this is right the way that i used to say
"please, please calm down

cause nobody hears all the stories and nobody hears all the voices and nobody hears all the sounds you fear, so can you reveal them?•

what if i have disappeared?
what if i have gone forever?
look at me, am i still here?
or maybe i have gone forever here i lay all the mornings after and i wonder how did i get there this is my mistake, i don't want to take all the responsibilities and be someone who hears all the stories and someone who hears all the voices and someone who fears all the sounds he hears but i can't reveal them

what if i have disappeared?
or maybe i have gone forever, gone forever
