Breathe

Paramore

I climb, I slip, I fall
Reaching for your hands
But I lay here all alone
Sweating all your bloodIf I could find out how
To make you listen now
Because I'm starving for you here
With my undying love and I, I willBreathe for love tomorrow
'Cause there's no hope for today
Breathe for love tomorrow
'Cause maybe there's another wayI climb, I slip, I fall
Reaching for your hands
But I lay here all alone
Sweating all your bloodIf I could find out how
To make you listen now
Because I'm starving for you here
With my undying love and I, I willBreathe for love tomorrow
'Cause there's no hope for today
Breathe for love tomorrow
'Cause maybe there's another wayBreathe for love tomorrow
'Cause there's no hope for today
Breathe for love tomorrow
'Cause maybe there's another wayI climb, I slip, I fall
Into your empty hands
But I lay here all alone
Sweating all your blood
