

Silhouette (Latin Skin)

Seahaven

And your friends, are they dangerous?
And if they are, well how much?
And your friends, are they glamorous?
And if they are, I've lost interest
Silhouette, loose sundress, low sunset, baby
Desert heat, come with me, just one drink, thirsty
This city ain't safe at sundown
And your chest; does it sound a beat?
And if it does, we can never be
Silhouette, loose sundress, low sunset, baby
Desert heat, come with me, just one drink, thirsty
This city ain't safe at sundown
I thought you noticed all our blemish,
Didn't you know this is temporary?
Inject a face into a memory
Extract before you reach the final scene
That way you will only be left with the grave
And not the hell to pay
Silhouette, loose sundress, low sunset, baby
Desert heat, come with me, just one drink, thirsty
This city ain't safe at sundown
