

Why Do Lovers Break Each Other's Heart?

Hall & Oates

Why do lovers
Break each other's hearts?
I'll never know
Why I don't understandHe's always saying
That there's no one else
While he's doin'
What hurts the mostWhen you tell a lie
You're always found out
And it's wrongUse up your patience
But she's back again
Crying and laughing
Does she love the pain?
