DAY AFTER DAY [LIVE]

BEAT CRUSADERS

Way up in the sky
Over the city, over tokyo
Silver light, summer moon
You'll be over somebody's winter this afternoon
While the dolphins swim in the sea
You're going grey, my baby
Still the war is waging endlessly
Day after day, day after day

Way up in the sky
Over the city and lake erie
You remember the flats, you were there
Out every night mr moonlight

Round and round and round we go
Just like yesterday

Way up in the sky
Over the city where you sleep tonight
The light outside your window blinks
"hotel, hotel, hotel"
Open the blind and dream in a moonbeam

When the war's finally over
We'll meet again
And pick up where we left off

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Scott, James Darrell / Hines, Gord
Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/