Comfort Zone

The Answer

Work all day, come back home
Get a little older
I don't feel like I belong
Devil on my shoulderDiscomfort I wait for you
Discomfort ITry and break my routine
It's harder than it looks like
Drowning in monotony
Thinking that I'm alrightDiscomfort I wait for you
Discomfort ICan I embrace a moment with you
Can I embrace a moment with you
I missed my chance a thousand times before
I swear that I am gonna miss no moreI will die in this place
Reading in the papers
Another frown, another face
Hoping for a rebirthDiscomfort I wait for you
Discomfort ICan I embrace a moment with you
Can I embrace a moment with you
I don't need a lifetime, a moment will do
Can I embrace a moment with youFor I missed my chance a thousand times before
I swear that I am gonna miss no more
Yes, I missed my chance a thousand times before
I tell you I, I'm gonna miss no moreAh, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Get it out, get it out of my way
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Get it out, get it out of my wayCan I embrace a moment with you
Can I embrace a moment with you
Don't need a lifetime, a moment will do
Can I embrace a moment with youFor I missed my chance a thousand times before
And I tell you I am gonna miss no more
So would you give me the reason I need
I waited so I want more and more and more and more
Yes, I swear that I, I'm gonna miss no more
No moreI missed my chance a thousand times before
And I tell you I, I'm gonna miss no more
