Me & You (Dedicated to Destiny)

Nas

I'd like to dedicate this one here to my star, to the one I cherish
She loves me unconditionally, no matter what
I love her, always be here for you baby, yeah
So for God, He gave me this gift, you, and I give you this worldBap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa dee ahh
Bap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa, woah
Yeah, just me and my little one
Just me and my little one, woahEven though we don't live in the same home
And I might have missed yo graduation
And no matter how many miles I'm away from you
You know that I love youDaddy on every station
Thinkin', I'm lovin' my occupation
I know I got you home waiting
Des-y, I do it all for youBap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa dee ahh
(Daddy's little girl)
Bap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa, woah
(I would give you the world)
Little girl, give you the world
Yeah, just me and my little one
Just me and my little one, woah
(I give you the world)Even though you'll be grown soon
You gotta stand on your own two
Please listen what daddy told you
I know you think that I'm old schoolYou'll see that I was right soon
One day you will meet the right groom
And then, you will see your life bloom
And then you'll know what's right for youBap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa dee ahh
(Daddy's little girl)
Bap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa, woah
Daddy's little girl, I would give you the world
Yeah, just me and my little one
Just me and my little one, woahRespect ya mom, no one will replace her
She's the one who went through the labour
But you don't owe her no favors
But her respect is dueSee daddy just wanna show you
All the heartache I go through
For you
This world of mine I give it all to youBap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa dee ahh
Bap bap bap bap bap, daa dee aaa, woah
(It's your world, baby girl, yeah)

Yeah, just me and my little one
Just me and my little one, woah
