In My Blood

Seemless

Years pass and in the distance a dream will die or come alive.
So in time it leaves me restless.
Gotta make it right, so much time spent trying to find my place in life.
All that I wanted was to be the voice in this eternal fight.
I am live so I live my life before I die.
Stand my ground, won't compromise.
Come out of darkness to find serenity within the light.
All that I needed was to breathe the music that I bleed inside.
So it goes there's a passion in every soul that shapes a mold.
A time to grow to sustain,
No one can take that away
