

Cease and Desist

Brakes

God came down and said "I'm fucking bored"
So he took a shot of whisky and shuffled his cards again
Then he went all-in with two jacks in his hand
"Whoever loses this better cease and desist"
Satan said "Ok, well, then it's double or quits"
Now can't you hear the angels crying?
Their songs of love are now songs of dying
Boom chicka boom it was over so soon
The cards were on the table and Satan had won
God said "Oh! No! No! What have I done?"
Bang! Bang! Bang!
Such a sickening sound
Nature's architecture being torn apart
Oh! No! No! Well, it happened so fast
It wasn't built to last
Bang! Bang! Bang!
Such a sickening sound
Nature's architecture being torn apart
Oh! No! No! Well, it happened so fast
It wasn't built to last x3
Then it ceased to exist
