Cinderball

Ninjas With Syringes

Cinderball (Official Lyrics + Audio Video)

No remorse
But of course
All's lost bargained in the retort

It's not the question
You really asked for

I'm on a mission
With no prediction
All actions ripe with contradiction

It's not the answer
You're free to talk about-

Don't bang my head against the wall and call it progress
Or justify the means then celebrate the process

Down
And you wanna burn out
While you go out, out down fuck around
Back to the arms of another one who understands

And wanna burn out
While you go out, out back fuck around
Down to the arms who will listen to you when you're [dead]

New tomorrow
Ignore the sorrow
All proceeds break and bleed to borrow
Don't mind the circumstance
It's not your headache

Open up my hand gouge into your thousand sunken eyes
Don't get too close
They'll rip your heart out

Don't justify or celebrate it's violent nature

Or gratify the end then throw away the creature

Down
And you wanna burn out
While you go back, back down fuck around
Down to the arms who will listen to you when you're dead

And you're killing it out
While you go back, back, down fuck around
Back to the one who will listen to you when you're-

This is a new beginning
Old sins not worth forgiving
Don't need the monster in my head to give a lecture

This is not ordinary
This is my cemetery
All thoughts broke and buried
Now I'm on a mission
Down-

So just be careful what you wish for
There will be more than enough in store

Don't do this
Don't call this atrophy
Don't ever let it get the best of me

Sometimes the only thing that you can do
Is just wait until it finds you-

Don't bang my head against the wall and call it progress
Or just justify the means and circumvent the process-

This is a new beginning
Don't need the monster in my head to make me feel good

This is not ordinary
Now I'm just a weapon
Down-

You let it burn out

You watch it burn out-
