Heaven and Earth

Blitzen Trapper

Heaven and earth are mine says I (x4)Over the western world ... shadows fall
Under the kind and dying trees we call
Together still we feel the breeze
To shatter all these waking dreams we've told
Ourselves to keep us free and cleanHeaven and earth are mine says I (x4)
(x2 more)There is a love that sleeps inside
The canyons of our deepest dreaming lives
A shelter that cannot be lost
A name that is so deep and so far across
I know you that you know me
Your life is like a bolt of lightning seen
Across the sky, so high and cleanHeaven and earth are mine says I (x3)
Heaven and earth are mineOver the western world ... shadows fall
Under the kind and dying trees we call
Together still we feel the breeze
To shatter all these waking dreams we've told
Ourselves yeah ourselves
Ourselves yeah ourselvesHeaven and earth are mine says I (x4)
