Safe

Zoegirl

Here I am alone with You
Quietly I talk to You
You said the truth would set me free
So here I am surrendering
I know I can let Your promise be my hope
And I know until You take me home
I'm safe, safe 'cause You love me
Safe, safe all because Your name
Has power to calm the ocean
When everything changes I'm safe
My heart is overflowing
With peace beyond all knowing
This love is deep, it shelters me
And I'm safe within Your reach
I know I can let Your promise be my hope
And I know until You take me home
Though the odds are stacked against me
Though I'm running out of time
My heart is breaking
But I know that You are mine
So I let You see into me
As You hold me in Your hand
My heart is on my sleeve
I'm safe because You understand
You understand
