See Through Me

Lefty

The car is parked, her mom and dad are fast asleep inside
She sits across from me, she licks her lips and bats her eyes
The time to make the move is nowI slide across the seat, I want to try and take it slow
I hope she don't reject me, don't think I could take the blow
I get the nerve and then I slide my hand inside her skirt
She crossed her legs and broke my wrist and yeahIt fucking hurts the pain is killing me
I know I'm not alone, I'm not the only one
Broken to the bone
See through meIt's three weeks later and we cut the cast and hit the town
Crazy scene and everybody there was getting down
I want her badly so I waited for her in the hall
Looked into the room and she was in a free for all
The pain is killing me, it's fucking killing me nowWon't you tell me why she's doing this
Won't you tell me why she's doing itI wanna know right now
Won't you tell me right now?
I want to hear it right now
So won't you tell me right now?
