

Tired Eyes

Pretend Happy

I still feel dizzy from the fall
Ill never find a way out it seems

Ive never felt so small
This town has devoured me

If only i could let go
Leave while im alive
Dont want to live a lie to get by

Only room for sorrow
Its how we all survive
Ive seen the world through tired eyes

I couldnt turn my back on you
Or let you go

Theres too much history here
Im sure you know

Keep me safe inside
Ill be your safe reminder
No one else will know

If only i could let go
Leave while im alive
Dont want to live a lie to get by

Only room for sorrow
Its how we all survive
Ive seen the world through tired eyes

If only i could let go
Leave while im alive
Ive seen the world through tired eyes
