

Head Up High (Lauren Flax Remix)

Oh Land

Where were you when I needed heat?
I'm frozen! Gotta get myself up
And believe I'm broken
Swim forward, we're underwater
She took your breath away
Tell me, love
Thought you said you'd die for me?! No heavy rain's gonna hold me down anymore
Nothing to shame's gonna strain myself, no no
Another day I'm the shine in your eyes
Another day's gonna hold my head up high
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher higher higher One day was all it took for us, to fall apart
Ship sinking with my heavy heart
Come rescue us!
I stay strong, melt the words on my tongue
Lights flash, you walk away
Laughs will be, got no room for hating me No heavy rain's gonna hold me down anymore
No sinner's shame gonna strain myself, no no
Another day I'm the shine in your eyes
Another day's gonna hold my head up high
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher higher higher All these times I told myself,
Inseparable, but the time will tell
Nothing is set in stone
Carved in wood, can't control
All these nights I beg for rest
Spend it in two in wilderness
Nothing is set in stone
Turn my back, hit the road. No heavy rain's gonna hold me down anymore
No sinner's shame gonna strain myself, no no
Another day I'm the shine in your eyes
Another day's gonna hold my head up high
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher (my head up)
Higher higher higher (my head up)

Higher higher higher higher higher
