

Our Song

Uffie

i think it's about time sweetheart for me to clarify a few things i never claimed to be an artist i can't even sing, you know everything happened so fast and i never knew i could get used to it now i'm kind of trapped in something shiny the stakes is so high you know am i worth it all?
do you believe in me? they say love lasts three years in three years i've seen a lot all those countries by your side now this time is all behind sharing joy
burst in tears
even recording makes me burst in tears touring days
drinking nights
so many people came to see us live we just started up for fun on a mission
you know the song
you and me just as one
few years later
i'm all alone oh i would like to let the music tell you, you've been wrong
that's our song
and maybe one day
you will think about all the effort that i've made
to make you stay
to make you stay write me this sing me that love is the essence of all our tracks now it's gone
and stakes is high
i end up alone with depths and lies i'm a lost child
don't you see
taking advantage of this industry

i look good
you want me
buy my cd and google me you work hard
i live sweet
end of the week
we're gonna make a beatoh i would like to let the music tell you,
you've been wrong
that's our song
and maybe one day
you will think about all the effort that i've made
to make you stay
to make you staydon't they know i'm expensive as far as my record sells filling the club on my name all the tickets are gonna sell to my fans i might look like the girl they want to be to my friends i'm this child they're all taking care of me see i never dreamt of that glory to me sounds so wack all this fame
all this trash
i just want to make some cashin the club as usual
in the plane
that's for sure
on my way to somewhere else it sometimes feel like i'm for sale

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>