I Am Not Good At Not Getting What I Want

Sophie Ellis-Bextor

I suppose that I should count my blessings
For a young thing my world is not too bad
Got a window, a place with a pillow
And a friend or two
But ever since I saw his face that morning
Nothing else has got the same summer sheen
Will he notice my eyes have got so lonely?
He may not be the one but I want him for my own and I know
I am not good at not getting what I want
I am not good at not getting what I want
Maybe I sound like a spoilt baby
But I know that there are some who have it all
I want to join them, to feel that glow around me

I want him more each day 'cos he never looks my way and I know
I am not good at not getting what I want
I am not good at not getting what I want
If we ever found ourselves together
I can promise I will love you every day
But I've a feeling that seeing is believing
You never make a point so I want you more than I can say
I am not good at not getting what I want
I am not good at not getting what I want
I am not good at not getting what I want
I am not good at not getting what I want
