Damage Done

Arceye

As the day is long
As the damage done
Rise
Get in line get em pumped up high
Get the hammers up high
Get in line to get fucked up
Get the hammers high
Calm and cool corrupt
As the day is long
As the Damage done
We wont give away anything weve won
They love the way, they love the way

We let the water wash away
Gonna wake shit up gonna break shit up
Gonna tear this god damned world apart
Dont doubt the hate thats inside of my heart
Gonna break humanity just inspire of me
Gaze into my eyes and youll find
Is this punishment where did we go wrong
Like a new conviction of a broken law
This is life in the balance this is hate for a challange
This is killing us in the desert dust
Were losing so much more
